

The History Timeline of Wittenborg

2024

Wittenborg to host its first Annual Globalisation Conference in August.

Re-accredited for the Certificate for Quality in Internationalisation by the European Consortium for Accreditation in Higher Education (ECA).

2023

Wittenborg opens 75 new purpose-built student accommodation studios at its Brinklaan Campus (De Ruyterstraat 5)

2023

All Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) programmes, pathways and specialisations re-accredited by NVAO and FIBAA.

2023

Master of Business Management MSc with specialisations, accredited by FIBAA and awarded the Premium Seal

2023

November 11th: Wittenborg celebrates 35th Anniversary Year with a Gala

2022

Wittenborg moves its main building to a newly purchased location: Brinklaan 268, Apeldoorn

2022

2021

MBA re-accredited by NVAO.

2020

Master of Business Management (MBM)
accredited by NVAO as MSc

2019

MBA re-accredited by FIBAA.

2019

Munich (Germany) campus opens.

Awarded Certificate for Quality in Internationalisation by the European Consortium for Accreditation in Higher Education (ECA).

2018

Bachelor of Business Administration programmes
re-accredited by NVAO

2018

WUAS Amsterdam location moves to a refurbished new floor of the the Dali Building!

2018

WUAS opens its new Ruyterstraat Student Accommodation location in the Centre of Apeldoorn.

2017

WUAS becomes a member of AACSB

2017

Bachelor of Business Administration programmes re-accredited by FIBAA.

2017

WUAS started offering parts of its programmes in Vienna, Austria – later moved to Bad Vöslau.

2017

WUAS opens the Spoorstraat Building at its Apeldoorn campus after major renovation.

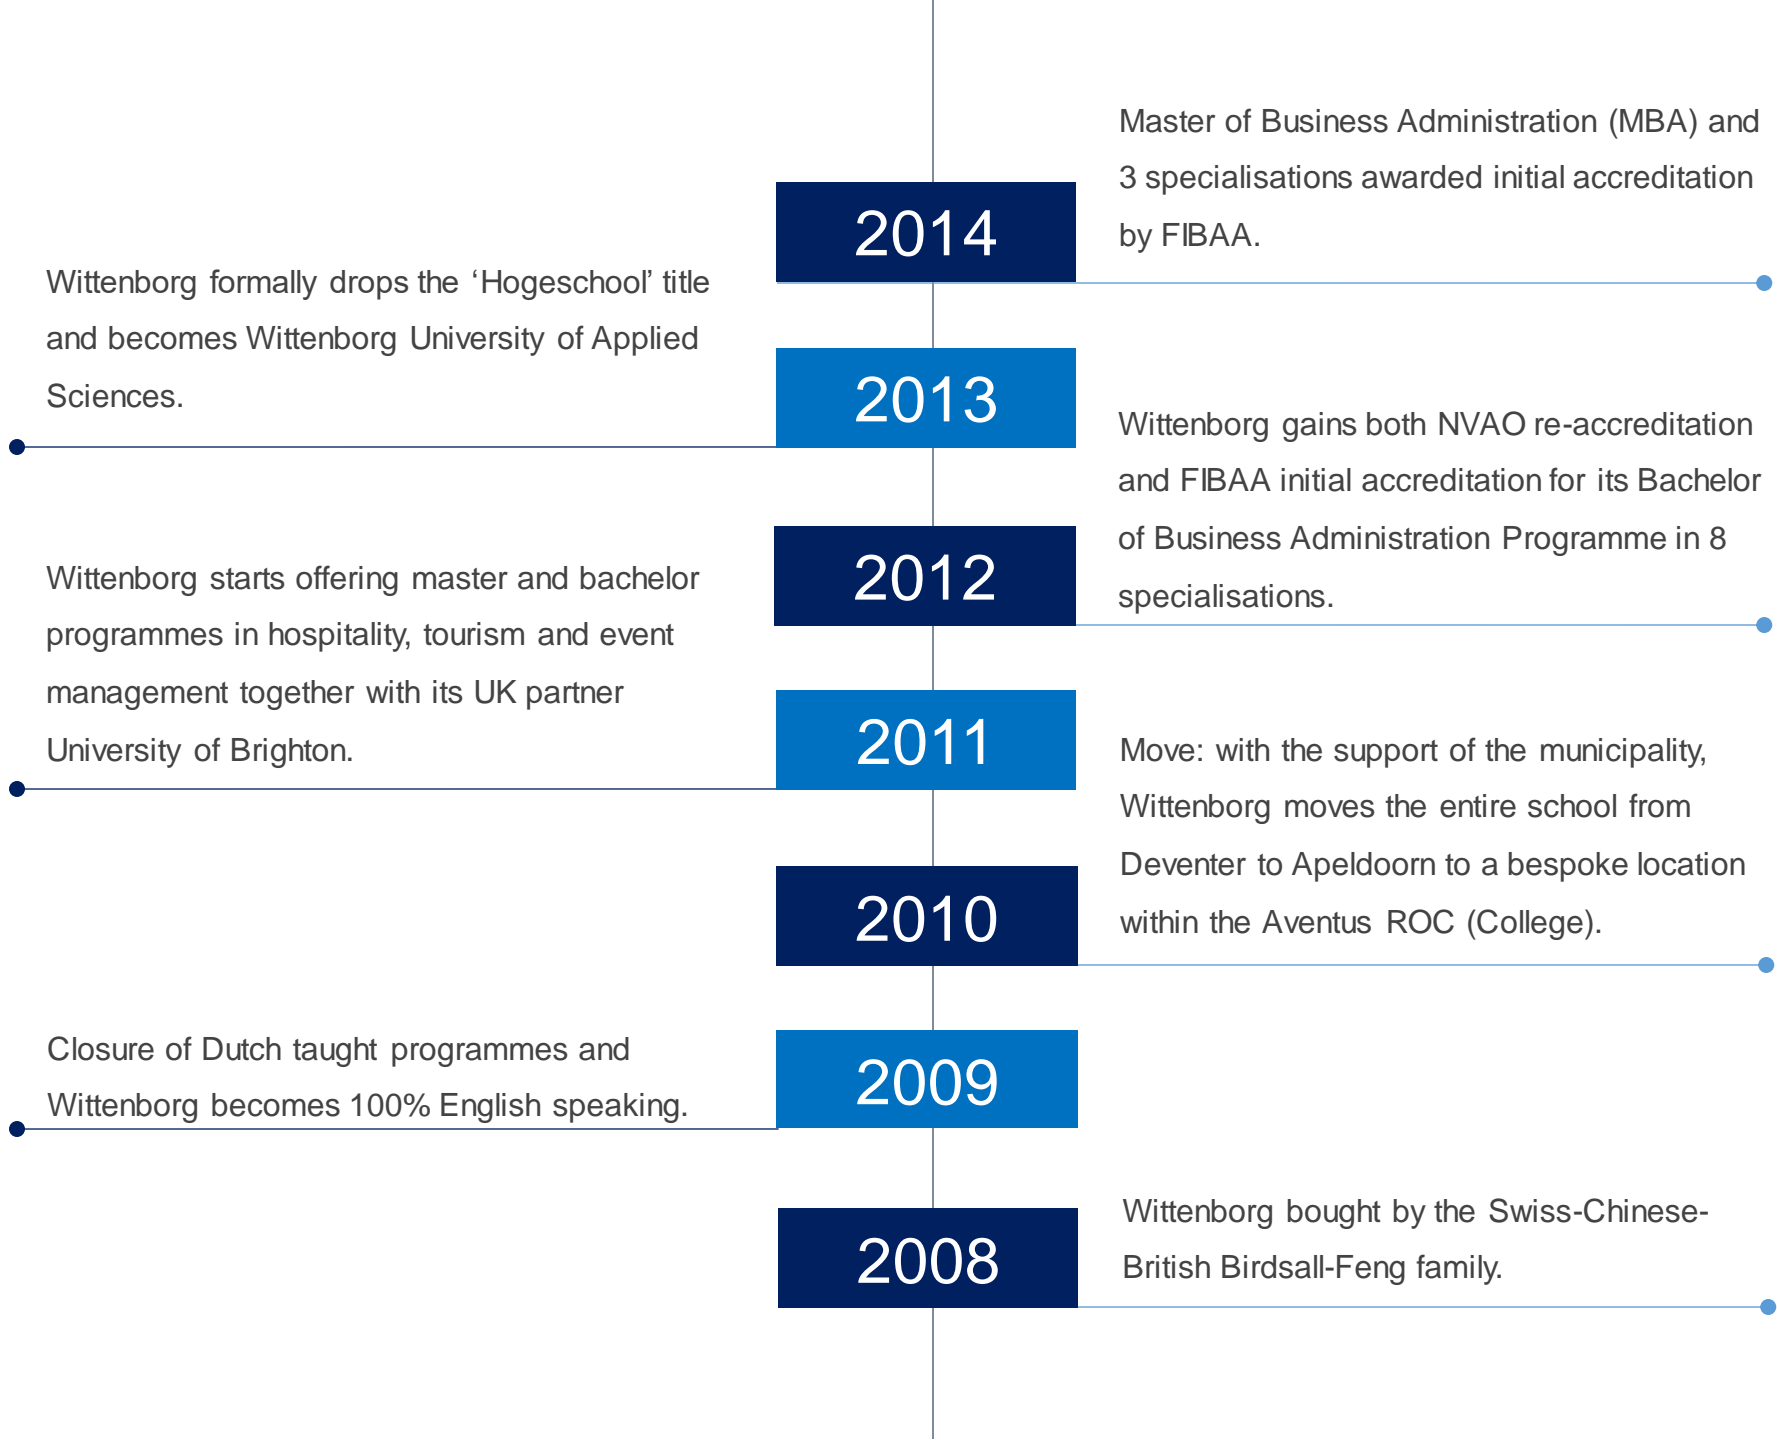

2015

MBA and specialisations accredited by NVAO.

2015

WUAS opens its Amsterdam location offering a bachelor's in business administration and entrepreneurship, as a double degree with the University of Brighton.

2015

2006

Wittenborg gains NVAO accreditation for its all-English taught Bachelor of International Business Administration programme with three specialisations.

2004

Wittenborg starts its first English-taught international foundation class for around 50 students from China and Vietnam, however its very first international student came from Seoul, South Korea.

2003

After the introduction in the Netherlands of national accreditation in 2003, Wittenborg starts its journey of formalizing its degree programmes.

Wittenborg moves to the Nieuwe Markt (Deventer), in a larger building to accommodate international students alongside its +/- 120 Dutch students.

2003

Hogeschool Wittenborg begins to offer (Dutch taught) bachelor degrees in Financial Service, Real Estate, Business Administration & Communication Management.

1998

Gained Degree Awarding Powers and became Hogeschool Wittenborg. Wittenborg started to offer Associate Degree level courses.

1996

21st September 1987 - Founding of Wittenborg College by Entrepreneur Henk Nijkamp in Hansiatic Dutch Town of Deventer. Wittenborg taught vocational courses in marketing, financial services and real estate.

1987